

Foundation House Training

Semester 1, 2010

Course for Incidental Counsellors

This two-day course provides an approach for working with refugee survivors of torture and trauma in a range of settings. Participants will gain skills and strategies for building relationships with refugee clients, and for handling difficult and distressing situations.

Content includes:

- the principles of a good working relationship with traumatised clients
- cross-cultural considerations
- basic counselling skills to enhance responsiveness to refugee clients and families
- the emotional responses of workers and implications for practice
- the limits of your work with refugees and when and how to refer to relevant services

Pre-requisite:

Participants need to have completed the first course in this training series, 'The Refugee Experience' or 'Introduction to working with Refugees'.

Comments from participants:

"Was a wonderfully useful and supportive environment for training – Thank you!"

SIGN UP FOR PRACTICE SEMINAR SERIES AT SAME TIME TO RECEIVE 10% OFF TOTAL REGISTRATION COST.

Suitable for people who are currently working with refugees in settlement, youth work, housing, employment, welfare, health, community services, or education.
