

School's In for Refugees

This is a comprehensive introductory training that is recommended as the first training from Foundation House for those working with refugee background students. This training is appropriate for those working in schools and other educational settings, at primary, secondary and post compulsory levels.

The training covers

- the refugee experience for young people including their prior education experiences
- the impact of trauma on young people's learning and wellbeing
- identifying strategies that teachers and other staff can use in the classroom that support the recovery process
- exploring a whole school approach and key areas where schools can increase support for refugee background students.

Participants will receive a copy of School's In for Refugees, a Whole School Guide to Refugee Readiness, a resource that assists schools in understanding refugee background issues and guides the implementation of a whole school approach to support. Participants will be introduced to other Foundation House resources for small group and classroom programs and activities.

Comments from participants:

"I now have a better understanding of the various behavioural issues students may display"

"Most useful were the strategies to use to help refugee background students; practical and a good variety"

"A fantastic practical training – and free!!"

Foundation House has a long history of working in schools. The work includes individual counselling, group work with students and families and professional development for school administrators, teachers and school support staff.
