

Classroom strategies and resources that support the recovery of refugee background students

This workshop showcases a range of activities from Foundation House resources and programs (Klassroom Kaleidoscope, Healthwise, Taking Action, and Rainbow) that help promote safety, dignity, and identity for those who have refugee experiences. These activities also help build connections between new arrivals and the wider student body in the classroom context.

Prerequisite: 'School's In for Refugees'

Cost: The training is free however participants must complete the registration form and return it via fax/email/post.

Foundation House has a long history of working in schools. The work includes individual counselling, group work with students and families and professional development for school administrators, teachers and school support staff.

Comments from participants:

"Excellent. Some very practical materials that link curriculum to recovery/wellbeing goals very important for refugee students"

"I will slow things down a little. Cater less to classroom teacher's demands and more to the needs of the children"

"Some good ideas to explore and some useful tips for inclusivity"
