The Victorian Foundation for Survivors of Torture Inc.

JOIN US

Established in 1987, the Victorian Foundation for Survivors of Torture Inc. (also known as Foundation House) is constituted as a not-for-profit organisation managed by an elected Board of Management. Our work is funded by the Victorian and Commonwealth Governments, charitable organisations and donations from private individuals.

OUR MISSION

To advance the health, wellbeing and human rights of people of refugee backgrounds in Victoria who have experienced torture or other traumatic events in their country of origin or while fleeing those countries.

WE:

- › Provide services to clients in the form of counselling, advocacy, family support, group work, psycho-education, information and complementary therapies.
- › Work with client communities to improve their capacity to access the services they need and to enable them to support recovery.
- › Offer professional and organisational development, consultancy and resources to assist health, education, employment and other community service providers to enhance the responsiveness of their services to the needs of people of refugee backgrounds.
- › Work with the Victorian and Commonwealth Governments to ensure that policies and programs have proper regard to the needs of people of refugee backgrounds.
- › Conduct and contribute to research about the needs of people of refugee backgrounds and the best possible ways of meeting those needs.

“Everyone at Foundation House has common goals to provide services and support to those who have experienced the unimaginable. It’s a community of people gathered together with their hearts and minds set on achieving those goals. That’s what I see every single time I visit.” Foundation House supporter”

Since its inception, Foundation House has had a committed network of individuals and families who support us in a range of ways including talking to people in their communities about our work, attending our events such as the Max Charlesworth Oration and end of year celebration, and contributing financially to support our work.

We warmly invite you to join us.
