

Foundation House

The Victorian Foundation for Survivors of Torture Inc.

OUR MISSION

To advance the health, wellbeing and human rights of people from refugee backgrounds who have experienced torture or other traumatic events.

ABOUT US

The Victorian Foundation for Survivors of Torture Inc. (also known as Foundation House) provides services to people from refugee backgrounds in Victoria who have experienced torture or other traumatic events in their country of origin or while fleeing those countries.

Foundation House was established in 1987. It is a not-for-profit organisation and its work is funded by the Victorian and Commonwealth Governments, charitable organisations and donations from private individuals.

Foundation House offices are located in:

- // Brunswick
- // Dallas
- // Dandenong
- // Ringwood
- // Sunshine

Foundation House also provides services in partnership with other agencies in rural and regional centres across Victoria including: Geelong, Shepparton, Swan Hill, Mildura, Ballarat, Bendigo, and the Latrobe Valley.

Further details about Foundation House offices can be found on the website:

HOW DOES FOUNDATION HOUSE WORK?

Our services are:

- // Free - including access to professional interpreters if you require this
- // Confidential - we keep your information private, as do the interpreters we use
- // Voluntary - you are free to stop being a client at any time for any reason
- // Supportive - we support your rights
- // Educative - we educate the community about the experiences of refugees.

Have you experienced torture or other traumatic events before you came to Australia?

If so, you may be experiencing problems and you may want to come to Foundation House.

It is normal for people to have difficulties as a result of previous experiences of torture or other traumatic events.

You may have noticed:

- // Sleep problems
- // Thoughts and memories that come into your mind which worry you
- // Feeling nervous in many situations
- // Not wanting to be around other people
- // Poor appetite
- // Little interest in doing things
- // Feeling that you can't trust other people
- // Problems with thinking and concentration
- // Family problems that relate to your experiences
- // Problems with learning or remembering.

You may also be concerned about your children if they:

- // Have some of the same problems as above
- // Are withdrawn, sad, nervous or aggressive
- // Play out their bad experiences
- // Are very distressed when they are separated from you.

We offer a comprehensive range of services to enable recovery from the consequences of torture or other traumatic events. These include:

- // Individual and family counselling
- // Client advocacy
- // Complementary therapies, e.g. traditional herbal medicine, massage and other natural therapies
- // Specialist mental health clinic
- // Group programs
- // Referral to other services.
